

It is important to train and housebreak your pet right away. Some pets learn quickly and others may require more time. Training your pet will take time and patience.

Housebreaking Tip: Young puppies should be taken out immediately upon waking and just before retiring, as well as multiple times during the day.

Litter Box Tip: Empty, wash, and refill your cat's litter tray at least once a week.